Find the perfect journal for your article

Elsevier® Journal Finder helps you find journals that could be best suited for publishing your scientific article. Please also consult the journal's Aims and Scope for further guidance. Ultimately, the Editor will decide on how well your article matches the journal.

Powered by the Elsevier Fingerprint Engine™, Elsevier Journal Finder uses smart search technology and field-of-research specific vocabularies to match your article to Elsevier journals.

Simply insert your title and abstract and select the appropriate field-of-research for the best results.

The banner features a dark space background with a vibrant purple and blue nebula on the right side. The Mendeley logo, consisting of three red circles connected by lines, is positioned in the top left corner. The text "I KNOWLEDGE" is prominently displayed in the center-left, with the "I" being a large white letter and "KNOWLEDGE" in a smaller white font. Below this, a tagline reads "Mendeley brings your research to life, so you can make an impact on tomorrow". A red button with the text "Create a free account" is located below the tagline. In the top right corner, there are links for "Sign In", "Create account", and a "Download" button. At the bottom, a light blue bar contains a green leaf icon, the text "NEW! Access over 5000 climate change papers in our", and a green button labeled "Climate Change Library".

The screenshot shows the Mendeley Data website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: Feed, Library, Suggest, Groups, Datasets (underlined), Careers, Funding, Mario, and a user profile icon labeled MR. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with links: Find Research Data, My Datasets, My Projects, New Dataset, and FAQ. The main content area has a purple header with the text "Discover Mendeley Data" and "Store, share, publish and find research data". A blue button labeled "Create a Dataset" is positioned below this text. The background of the header features a microscopic image of biological tissue. Below the header, the section "Find research data" is displayed, followed by the text "Search 10.7 million datasets from domain-specific and cross-domain repositories". A search bar with the placeholder text "Find Research Data" and a magnifying glass icon is provided. Below the search bar, a suggestion line reads: "Or try: chip-seq drosophila, late quaternary sediment core or qubit oscillator frequency".

Pre-evaluación para presentarse a Scopus

Alistamiento

Gracias por su interés en ser indexado en Scopus, la mayor base de datos de resúmenes y citas. Para recibir un informe de pre-evaluación gratuito sobre su revista, por favor, complete el formulario y responda a las siguientes preguntas. Por favor, tenga en cuenta que la pre-evaluación de la revista es una comprobación preliminar de los criterios técnicos y administrativos para aumentar las posibilidades de que la revista sea incluida en Scopus, y también para evitar un período de embargo por razones que puedan ser fácilmente identificadas. El informe de pre-evaluación positiva no garantiza una decisión positiva sobre la inclusión del título en Scopus. La pre-evaluación tampoco será responsable por el resultado final de la evaluación completa de la revista, tal como lo establece el Consejo Asesor y de Selección de Contenido (CSAB, por sus siglas en inglés) independiente.

Los Campos marcados con * son obligatorios.
